ON THE ROAD To The Title

Weekend Preview

Bonnyrigg v Blacktown

A repeat of last year's Grand Final, and it could also be a preview of this years. The winners get a week off and go straight into the Grand Final, the losers face a sudden death tie against the winners of the Macarthur Rams and Parramatta Eagles game.

Bonnyrigg had had a week off to recover from their bumps and bruises, and the Minor Premiers will need to forget their last outing against Canterbury Marrickville and start to play again in the manner which won them the title.

The last time the teams met was at the Serbian Centre when the Demons won 3-1, and the White Eagles will be looking for revenge - and that week off - when the two sides meet again.

Blacktown bounced back from their nightmare three-match spell, without ever really getting back into top form against Macarthur. Missing two key players in Jon Angelucci and Peter Sermanni through suspension would not have helped, but both players should be back on board here. The Demons will be confident after their beating their opponents last up - something neither set of players will be forgetting - and this one could go either way.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - Too close to call - Blacktown purely because of their victory over the White Eagles only a month ago.

Macarthur Rams v Parramatta Eagles

This is the sudden death game, with the losers saying goodbye to their 1999 season and the winners playing the losers of Bonnyrigg and Blacktown.

Macarthur will have to bounce back from their 3-1 loss to Blacktown last week, and it will be the toughest test of Brian Dene's short coaching career so far. The Rams never hit top gear against the Demons, and will have to quickly find that gear here. Striker Jimmy Aschner has been partnering Eric Williams up front, and between them and Michael Brookes they will have to find a way past the tight Eagles defence.

Parramatta came through their first finals game last weekend against Bankstwon relatively unscathed, and coming off a win will be on a high. While they finished below the Rams the finals format means the Rams are coming off a defeat, so Roberto Viera will have no need to lift his players. All three grades for the Eagles go into action this weekend, a fair testament to the strength of a club that can bring in two National League players - Alex Kuzmanovic and Tom Haythornthwaite, lose them for the season to injury and yet still be in with a real shout.

SUPER SOCCER TIP - An 'upset' - Parramatta to sneak home past the Rams.

Blacktown City Demons 3 Macarthur Rams 1

Paul Goodwin was at Jensen Park

In mild conditions at Jensen Park Preliminary semi-finalists Blacktown City and Macarthur provided an entertaining afternoon of fine football in front of a reasonable crowd.

Blacktown wound up winners 3-1, a result that indicated their superiority if not the extent of it over the full ninety minutes.

Macarthur were very much in the game until the Demons scored, but their poor finishing affected their later confidence and it allowed Blacktown to dictate terms until they had gone three up. The Rams then began to look more like themselves and rallied to score one and threaten to score at least one more, but it was not to be their day.

Chances fell to both sides early on Stuart Cleary heading just wide in the opening minute, from a Damien Brown cross and Chris Bradley hitting a firm shot that John Crawley took well two minutes later. Eric Williams also went close for Macarthur, when he found himself free inside the six yard box, four minutes in, but the defence cleared before he could get in his shot.

After many good shots had been dealt with by both keepers and there was nothing to choose between the two sides, Blacktown hit the lead in the 38th minute.

Damien Brown managed to get over a pin-point cross from the right and Damien Smith was given enough time inside the area to receive the ball, advance a few paces and slip the ball past Crawley.

Macarthur almost drew level on the stroke of half time when from a free kick deep on the right hand side of the field, the ball reached the left hand edge of the area where Shane Knight drilled the ball inches wide of the right upright from a difficult angle.

Eric Williams had a good chance for the Rams too in the 56th when he latched onto a rebound from his own shot to drive the ball firmly at the goal, only to see the legs of a defender deflect the ball wide of a beaten Fernando Greco.

A ball crossed in by substitute Aaron Holst in the 64th led to the Demons' second goal, Smith stabbing his first shot at Crawley who pushed the ball away only for Smith to put away the loose ball.

Six minutes later Brown whipped in a cross from the left that allowed Holst to climb high at the far post and send a well directed, looping header into the roof of the net.

Macarthur then had a number of solid chances as they ventured forward to try and regain the initiative in the last twenty minutes.

David Reid's long range shot was sent straight at the keeper in the 72nd while Richard Lloyd's angled shot from wide on the right was nicely tipped over the bar by the agile Greco.

Rams substitute Trevor Whiddett found some space for himself in the 77th and tested Greco with a low shot, moments before Blacktown almost got a fourth when Brown found Cleary whose shot was saved once and then put wide.

The Rams finally got the goal they deserved when, after Rastall had sent Reid on his way in the 79th a low cross from the right was despatched to the far post where Williams had only to tap in at close range.

It was a businesslike win for the Demons who were without Peter Sermanni and John Angelucci on this occasion, but had a fine all round team effort to see them through, with Smith, Brown and Holst all in good touch.

Macarthur were very competitive for new coach Brian Dene and with a better touch in front of goal could well have been the team taking the half time lead rather than Blacktown. They could well figure prominently over the next couple of weeks.

Referee Alex Spirovski was in charge the first time these two sides met this season in the second round and he had few problems again here, apart from the potential for disaster had the game gone into extra time. It was already dark at the finish as both the earlier games had gone to extra time and penalties.

Canterbury won the Under 18 game 4-2 on penalties, over Leichhardt Tigers, after the scores had been locked at 3-3 after extra time, while Blacktown City edged out Fairfield Bulls, following a scoreless game, to win the Under 21 game on penalties 3-1, Demons' keeper Simon Prior saving two of the kicks, to give his team the edge.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Willard, Lloyd, Valle, Bourke, Aschner (Whiddett, 68) , D. Reid, Rastell, Williams, Knight, Brooks (Macerola 70),

Parramatta Eagles 3 Bankstown City Lions 0

Mark Fowler was at the Gabbie

Elimination semi-finals are never for the faint-hearted, and it was certainly the case at the Gabbie Stadium on Sunday when Parramatta and Bankstown clashed.

No quarter was given by either side, with a couple of flair-ups and a number of meaty challenges adding a real edge to the game.

Bankstown went into the game with two players missing through suspension, and four players - Mark Abi-Arrage, Robbie and George Issa and Nabil Codmani all absent representing the Australian Lebanese team overseas.

That meant the Lions had only three substitutes named on the bench, and one of those was reserve goalkeeper Tom Briskovski, who got on the field in bizarre circumstances when Zlatko Josevski, Bankstown's first choice goalkeeper, got himself sent off - for handballing about 15 metres outside his penalty area!

The send-off mattered little as his team were 3-0 down and it was deep into injury time, but to see the dimunitive goalkeeper trying to dribble around forwards, only to lose the ball to an opponent caused much amusement among the crowd. Unfortunately, when the ball was smacked back goalwards from some distance Josevski did what all good goalkeepers should and caught the ball.

He started stripping his shirt and gloves off even before the inevitable red-card had been issued.

It was the Eagles day through and through though, and much of that went to Grant Bard, who caused considerable consernation in the Lions defence all day. It seemed surprising that nobosy was allocated to stick close with him after he destroyed the Lions in the first half hour, although this player is so clever one suspects they probably were, and were as close to him as he allowed.

In an elimination game that early goal is a real-nerve settler, and it was Bard who opened the scoring after just three minutes. A through ball found him unmarked on the right hand side of the penalty area, and with teammate George Wakim screaming for the ball and possibly in a better position, Bard smacked a shot home to delight the Eagles fans.

The Eagles controlled the early stages of the game, and while on 12 minutes Bard fired wide, only a fine save by Josevski denied him on 14 minutes after a flowing move saw the number 9 allowed a free header at the far post. The ball fell back out to Balla Conde, but the ball got stuck under his feet and Josevski was finally able to smother.

The Lions started coming more into the game, with Michael Hawrysuik enjoying a fine game, but on 27 minutes Anthony Panzarino made it 2-0.

Worse followed for Bankstown, when player coach Mile Todorovski limped dejectedly off the field with seemingly a hamstring problem, to be replaced by youngster Gordon

Wilson. Todorovski looked in good form until his untimely departure, using all of his 39 years to prompt and probe as always.

An ugly incident sparked a number of players on 26 minutes, with players from both sides rushing in after Mark Revely hammered Richard Luksic when the ball was in the air. The challenge by Revely looked reckless, but while Richard was flat out on the ground brother Damien charged in and looked to kick out at Revely. Josevski stupidly ran in as well, from a good 30 metres away, and it took considerable time before the game got under way again, Revely earning a yellow card for his troubles and Damien Luksic earning the same for his act of brotherly love.

Tensions were raised after that, with a number of players biting even harder in tackles, and the half time whistle, on the stroke of which Conde was also shown a yellow, probably helped to simmer the previously boiling cauldron.

A even second half saw Adam Anderson replace George Wakim on 56 minutes, and on 58 minutes he was making it 3-0 with a cool finish for yet another goal for the youngster.

There was never going to be a comeback for the Lions from there, although they fought back when Mendo Lozevski was just unable to connect to a cross, then Stewart Van Bentum ripped a shot just wide that seemed heading for either the back of the net or the crowd behind the goal - fortunately it hit the net behind the goals and saved anybody from some serious damage! It was a shot that no goalkeeper in the world would have saved.

A minute later an indirect free kick saw the Eagles scramble the ball for a corner, and from that corner the Lions smashed a shot against the up-right.

A quiet Sasha Dimovski had a late effort for the Lions, but to no avail and then came Josevski's moment of madness, but it is the Eagles who face another sudden death match next week against Macarthur.

Coach Roberto Viera was understandably delighted after the game, saying he thought his team had got off to that perfect start and had been able to control periods of the game. He said that he hadn't wanted his players to relax with the Lions not being at full-strength, and he was looking forward to his teams game against 'a very tough, very solid' Macarthur side next week.

Macarthur won the Under 18 game 3-1 on penalties, over the Blacktown City Demons, after the scores had been locked at 1-1 after extra time, and their Under 21's edged out Bonnyrigg 2-1, with youngster Matthew Thompson a stand-out for the Rams.

NSW FIRST DIVISION REVIEW

ROUND NINETEEN SUMMARY

SAINTS SLIP UP IN DYING STAGES AS DOLPHINS ARE BEATEN AT A C UNITED AND OVER FIVE THOUSAND TURN UP AT PENRITH PARK

Battling Moorebank squeezed out a heroic 1-0 win at Mona Park on Thursday last, when they met the in-form Auburn United in a catch up game.

The ground-mist began to swirl around the ankles of the players as the clock ticked away, but after near misses at both ends all that separated the two sides at the finish was a 26th minute penalty converted by Kyp Kosmatu, after Spiro Rompies had been upended by Auburn defender Can Celik.

Auburn had gone close with a Deniz Keselik shot from long range in the 8th and a fierce Huseyin Bayhan drive in the 21st that deflected for a corner off a defender, who knew little about it.

Moorebank should have done better themselves when, in the 24th, from a free kick out wide on the left and lifted in by Rompies, a Kosmatu header rebounded off the right post in the path of Marcus Pavlakis, who was beaten to the ball by the outstretched leg of a desperate defender.

Pavlakis later rocked the same right upright with a 25 yard drive just seconds before the break, while Alan Gordon had a long range effort for Auburn which just cleared the bar.

Second half substitute Ante Krezo looked set to put the home side one level terms when he hit a powerful shot on target in the 64th but he reckoned without the brilliance of Moorebank keeper Alex Sanchez who got up acrobatically to tip the ball over the bar.

A ball across the face of the Moorebank goal in the 71st crossed from the right by Erkan Demir was blasted over the bar by Aydin Cetinay and after Phil Wurth had tried a volley for the visitors in the 84th, which Haydar Arslan saved well, Cetinay laid on a pass for Bayhan two minutes nearer the end which was steered wide of a grateful Sanchez.

Moorebank lifted themselves off the bottom with this win and from the same number of matches went into the weekend programme 3 points to the good over Dulwich Hill.

They were sadly depleted for the trip to Penrith on Saturday night with Spiro Rompies and Kyp Kosmatu both ruled out after picking up knocks in the Auburn game, but they put up a good show in front of a crowd of 5,217 attracted to the spectacle of a First Division game under the powerful lights of Penrith Stadium.

Moorebank showed plenty of fire and purpose and were well served by dynamic, creative player Joe Corrente. This player got away down the left in the 22nd minute and sent a shot skimming over the bar to give Panthers' keeper Mike Gibson something to think about.

When Penrith won a free kick in the 29th Steve Dimovski sent his cross deep into the goalmouth where the keeper Alex Sanchez could not get hold of the ball and from an attempt to clear the ball by a defender the ball was inadvertently pushed into his own net by the unfortunate young keeper.

Richard Astone had been up to issue a challenge for the home side, as the ball came in, but in facing his own goal to take the ball the keeper spilt it as he tried to ward off the Penrith players lurking inside the six yard area.

There was plenty of entertaining football for the large crowd, shots from Jon Hawkins that skimmed the bar and a Kaan Davies header saved at close range for Penrith, while at the other end Corrente has a shot just wide and a glancing header by Mike Necovski was also off target.

Great work by Corrente on the right which saw the ball crossed smartly from the byline led to the equaliser for the visitors in the 72nd minute. The low pass eluded the defence and was bundled over the line by Alex Locke.

The Moorebank joy turned to gloom less than a minute later when Hawkins put Mark Higgins away down the right and from the deep cross Astone sent a lovely looping header over the head of Sanchez into the top right corner of the net.

Astone also went close not long after this with a nice volley and Moorebank had one last attempt on goal in the 81st when Corrente broke quickly from a Marcus Pavlakis pass only to be thwarted by a good piece of anticipation by Gibson who came well off his line to avert any danger.

Penrith were the winners all round, the win putting them into the four again and the crowd giving them the support they were looking for not only on the night, but perhaps for the long term future of the club.

Moorebank can lick their wounds but were good opponents and are looking a better bet to stay up than Dulwich Hill at this stage.

Dulwich Hill faced Stanmore at Arlington Oval, but their hopes of picking up valuable points atthe expense of their co-tenants at the famous old ground were dashed when their keeper Peter Trajcevski was sent off in the 43rd minute.

The keeper had saved an Achilles Markopoulos penalty attempt in the 16th minute after Mario Rositano had been brought down just inside the box.

He had also saved a one on one with Soc Bakafoukas two minutes earlier.

Trajcevski was sent off for taking out Bakafoukas outside his area when the Stanmore player had an uninterrupted passage to goal and the red card meant that John Sherry had to take over in goal, having already played a full game in that position in the reserves, due to the shortage of fit keepers.

Stanmore quickly exploited their numerical advantage to go one up in the 45th minute.

Eddie Wong crossed the ball in smartly from the right and when player-coach Eddie Briscoe played the dummy Peter Kypreos was on hand to steer the ball past Sherry.

Markopoulos set off on a mazy run in the 71st to make it 2-0 with a cool finish that saw the ball nestling in the bottom right corner of the net, after the former Sutherland player had drawn the keeper.

A cross from the right by Briscoe allowed Bakafoukas to head in at the far post in the 73rd and when Bakafoukas had an 83rd minute shot pushed away by the keeper Kypreos was there again to tuck the ball away for a 4-0 lead.

Dulwich kept battling away but after Alex dos Santos went off injured they looked less like scoring and it was only after the Hawks turned off the taps that their opponents were finally able to find the net. Ivo de Jesus did some fine work on the right and sent over a very deep cross to the left-hand point of the area where Modar Sultan did well to lob Paul Kyprianou delicately, from 20 yards and find the top right corner.

St George squandered what looked like a winning 2-0 lead when held to a 2-2 draw by Illawarra Lions at St George Stadium on Sunday.

Having led from goals by Alex Araujo and Leo Carle they fell on their own swords in the last two minutes to concede a goal to a header from a free kick out on the right headed in by Tony Trpcevski and a delicate chip by Jason Kencevski right at the death.

Gordon Sutherland made a good run in the 14th minute and set up Tim Preston for a shot that the Lions' keeper saved well. Alex Araujo is just beginning to find his best form now and in the 24th minute he went past several defenders and unleashed a strong shot that the keeper, Jared Bone, saved brilliantly.

St George took the lead in the 37th minute after player-coach Paul Carter, back in the side after injury, had made a strong run and put Preston away out wide.

Preston's cross to an unmarked Araujo was headed perfectly past the desperately diving Bone.

Desimir Tosevski won possession in the middle of the park and got away from the defence only to be denied by a great stop from Trinity Allen in the St George goal in the 45th.

Early in the second half Tosevski had a similar opportunity, but again Allen came to the rescue.

In the 66th Leo Carle produced one of his brilliant pieces of work to score a nice individual goal and extend the lead, but the last few minutes wiped the smiles off the faces of the home supporters who watched in shock as Illawarra punished the defence for some late lapses and returned to the South Coast with a precious point. It was two points lost by the Saints.

Saints also lost the services of likeable striker Tim Preston who was hospitalised with a knee injury that looked like ligament damage rather than the dislocation first diagnosed.

The heavy state of the pitch and the long wet period that has meant heavy pitches for training and playing on all season has taken its toll in knee injuries this year at a number of clubs and the unfortunate Preston is the latest to come to grief.

In a game that could have gone either way Auburn's Anthony Kanaan took th hitherto superb Hurstville City Minotaurs' keeper John Mylonas - and probably himself - by surprise by lifting the ball into the roof of the net in the dying seconds for a 1-0 win to Auburn at Mona Park.

Hurstville had a number of chances to wrap up the game well before then, but first the woodwork denied Dario Fernandez in the 13th minute and then a string of saves by Auburn keeper Haydar Arslan kept Tom Pontidas and Nick Knithakis, three times, at bay setting up the grandstand finish by the home side.

When these two sides are engaged it is rare for either to draw their matches, but as the game wore on the odds tightened considerably. Auburn have not drawn all season and the Minotaurs only once, but no more bets would have been taken in the 90th minute with the scores still locked at 0-0 and a rare one pointer beckoning.

Mylonas played his part, probably making more saves even than Arslan to illustrate that not all scoreless draws are lifeless.

Huseyin Bayhan produced one of the better first half opportunities for Auburn in the 38th which the keeper saved with relative ease, but the second half was much more lively.

Gurdal Ozcan made a fine run in the 66th minute which took him from well inside his own half to the opposing penalty area, only to be robbed by a defender, but two minutes later he got away down the left and was through to face the keeper who pulled off a great diving save.

Shots from Bayhan in the next few minutes were well saved by the fully stretched Mylonas on several occasions and in the 79th the Hurstville side was forced to clear a shot from Aydin Cetinay off the line.

Cetinay accepted a pass from Ozcan in the 86th and fired in a shot that Mylonas saved brilliantly when it had goal written all over it.

Taner Omac then provided the pass that set up the chip from out wide by Kanaan that bamboozled the Minotaurs' keeper who had covered himself in glory in the face of some real sharp shooting on the day, only to fall at the last.

Manly lost some of their advantage at the top of the table when beaten 1-0 at Abruzzi Oval by A C United.

In a bruising, midfield slog the home side played their tactical game and it paid off with a win.

There were early chances to the visiting Dolphins, but they failed to take them and it was almost an earlier lead than the 44th minute penalty that won the game for A C United.

Osvaldo El Ali took a 20th minute free kick quickly, from 15 yards out on the left of the area and it was only a spectacular diving save from Dean McCreath which stopped the ball finding the top left hand corner of the goal.

In the 34th Paul Wearne took a spectacular shot from 30 yards out which was right on target but it was tipped over by the keeper who just got a glove to it to push it away.

In the 44th minute Dolphins' defender Greg Walley received a yellow card handling the ball in the box and a penalty was awarded, which Fabio Screpis converted easily to give A C an unexpected lead at a critical time in the game.

Four minutes after the restart Devrin Huseyin had a blistering shot on goal from 20 yards out that Dolphins' keeper Dean McCreath acrobatically pushed over the bar, and on 53 minutes the same player came close from a well-worked free kick.

A C kept a tight hold on the dangerous Dean Harding, but in a rare break by the player he managed to offload a pass to Wearne whose shot from 30 yards out just swung to the left ofthe upright.

In the 78th Manly's Damian Rosenthal had a very good chance to equalise, but delayed his shot too long allowing the home defence time to clear.

The Dolphins lifted their game in the last ten minutes and controlled possession as they continued to look for an equaliser.

Two minutes from time Dean Harding had a cracking shot from the left side of the area which was saved extremely well at the left near post by Andres Ferreiro.

AC United didn't go out there to play pretty football, they went out to be uncompromising and they did that extremely well, marking out of the game the division's top goal scorer, Harding, and frustrating the rest of the Manly players.

Manly found it hard to penetrate or to be constructive with their possession and this was due in part to the good scrambling defence by the home side.

It was also a stop-start match and this didn't allow Manly to play their natural, fast paced game.

All credit to AC United they probably were the better side as Manly simply played poorly and United rose to the occasion, in the process avenging a 6-0 defeat in the first round.

There were no fewer than nine yellow Cards handed out in the game by referee Con Diomis and as a result of two of them, both Greg Walley and Danny Barbalace will miss next week's match through suspension.

ROUND TWENTY PREVIEW

The big Saturday game is at Cromer Park where Manly Warringah take on St George in the return leg having been beaten surprisingly easily the first time around at St George Stadium.

That game marked the debut of Mark Brennan for the Saints and Alan Hunter for the Dolphins and both have settled in well now in similar positions in their respective sides.

This is a crucial game for the Saints who do believe that they can topple the Dolphins from their lofty pinnacle before the season is over. They will need to be quick as Stanmore are now breathing down the necks of both of them and a draw would delight the circling Hawks. A Manly win is anticipated though.

Stanmore face the tricky visit to play Illawarra Lions at Ian McLellan Park and that is of some concern to them as they have not been the best of travellers this term. Another Hawks win is far from certain.

Hurstville entertain Rockdale at Hurstville Oval where many sides have come unstuck this season. The home side is one of the most unpredictable in the league, but save their best for these derby games and ought to make life very hard for their neighbours. A draw is a distinct possibility.

A C United hosts Penrith Panthers who, like their opponents, have not found scoring easy recently.

A win by the visitors would allow them to gain a further grip on fourth spot ahead of the strong challenge from Rockdale Suns.

Bathurst turns it on for Moorebank who are within a point or two of steering clear of the relegation zone. They are working hard and if their creative players like Spiro Rompies and Kyp Kosmatu are available they may make life very hard for the home side here. A draw is the most likely outcome.

Dulwich Hill and Auburn meet in an important game for the home side who are now in the hands of Senor Gomes who has taken over the struggling side from Dennis Duarte, who brought the side back up from Second Division.

The ever popular Gomes had been understudy to Agenor Muniz both here and at Warringah Dolphins, as well as working with Duarte in the past.

Dulwich may be without Brazilian wizard Alex dos Santos who took a nasty knock last weekend and there are other problems with the keeper being red carded too and no suitable replacement available.

Maybe Carlos Zabala can be tempted out of retirement as there is only the Under 18 keeper left standing, following an injury to understudy David Martin.

John Turner

Coach of Minor Premiers Bonnyrigg White Eagles

With John Turner guiding the Bonnyrigg White Eagles to their second Minor Premiership in a row, Super Soccer editor Mark Fowler sat down with a coach enjoying a rare weekend off, to chat about the season.

SS Apart from the obvious thing of getting more points than anyone else, why do your think your team has been successful again this year?

JT I think the attitude of the players has a lot to do with it. Its been a four year plan, so it hasn't just been this year. We basically made a couple of staff changes to the team this year, but other than that there hasn't been a great deal of difference from last year or the year before.

Bonnyrigg now have the foundation of a very good side, which they can make changes to and there's no reason why they can't keep being successful.

SS Do you think your performances have been better this year than last year?

JT I think overall, over the 22 rounds they have because last year we had to win something like 13 or 14 to become minor premiers. This year we have beaten the teams at the bottom of the table, and have showed more consistency across the year rather than last year which was just in the second part of the season. Last year in the first round of the competition we lost five games, and in the second part we didn't lose any.

SS Has there been any teams this year that have surprised you?

JT I think Ryde are a very good outfit, although they didn't quite achieve the results I thought they might have. I think they are a very solid unit.

<Fairfield> Bulls played a lovely brand of football and did very, very well and overall I think the competition this year is stronger than in previous years. I do believe that overall it's a stronger competition.

SS Are there any young players at Bonnyrigg you expect to come through in the next few years?

JT There has already been interest in three of our players from National League clubs already, but I also believe that players like Bobby Dragas, Milan Crnokrak, Mark Racker, who's a fabulous boy, Luffy (Colin Luff) who is out with a broken leg and Robert Gomez who is just out-standing. I think there's four or five players who could really go on.

SS Are there any players for Bonnyrigg who have really come on this year?
JT Ben Green. Ben Green has just improved out of sight. I would say Bobby Dragas has gone ahead in leaps and bounds, even Mark Racker, who came to me from Division Two two years ago. He was playing for Greystanes in Division Two two years ago. Ben Green was playing for Macarthur under 21's as an overage player.

SS You must be pretty busy yourself John with everything?
JT I am pretty busy! It's the first year this year I've got involved with the juniors as well - the 13's to the 16's, the 18's and 21's. I'm down the ground maybe 4 times a week. It's a long haul, but I've got players who are 18 and playing in the Under 21's, and they are training with the first grade. I consider them as apprentices, so they train with the first team and then when they are ready to play first grade in a couple of years, its not such a big step up.

SS You were voted Super League Coach of the Year by your fellow coaches last year, must have been a great honour?
JT It was a great honour, especially when you are surrounded by so many good coaches as well. Its nice when your fellow coaches elect you, I think it is a big compliment.

SS When you lost against Blacktown a few weeks ago, did you think that maybe that was it?
JT I didn't think it was all over, no. I told the boys after the game not to hit the panic button. That day also we lost a couple of players, and they had a tough run home. They had to play Bankstown, the Bulls and Melita, and I said 'let's be fair, we lost points to Bankstown, we lost points to Fairfield and we lost points to Melita', so they had to play them.

SS You mentioned Colin Luff, it must have been a real blow to lose him?
JT It was a real blow, and at the moment it doesn't look to good for him. I spoke to him yesterday and he's having a few problems. The bone isn't knitting as well as it should, calcium deficincy or something, so he's got to wait another 6 weeks and then have more x-rays.

SS You brought in Ray Younis and Joe Bruni at a good time in the season?
JT Well, I think I contributed to Danny Poljak breaking his leg. I was looking for another striker, but the board said that we had Poljak as a back-up. I said 'what happens if he braeks his leg tomorrow? The next day he broke his leg...'
We brought in Ray Younis then, and when Luffy broke his leg we got Joe Bruni from Marconi. Bruni has done a wonderful job for us, especially as he has only been playing 10 minutes here and there for Marconi.

SS What makes a good coach?
Jt You have to be very patient. You've got to be able to understand and read the game, although at this level I don't need to teach my players how to play soccer. I believe the art of it all is selecting the right players in the right positions.

SS A hypothetical question to finish John, would John Turner the player have liked John Turner the coach.
JT (smiling) On occasions! Possibly on match days, but not during training no! Mind you, John Tuner the player would never have been good enough to play for John Turner the Coach!

Super Soccer would like to thank John Turner for his time and wish him and Bonnyrigg all the best for the remainder of the season.

ROUND EIGHTEEN REVIEW

UNI OF NSW REGISTER THIRD WIN, WHILE HILLS PICK UP VITAL POINT AT SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

Hills United, equipped with a very young team and a situation that was beginning to look precarious, showed how hard work can be rewarded when they travelled to St Paul's Oval and came away with a precious point from a 0-0 draw against Sydney University on Saturday.

Saturday's game was always going to be a tough encounter for them, playing the team in fourth position when they themselves were closer to the bottom and they found the ground to be heavy with the centre of the field being a mud patch after the two lower grade games.

The game favoured Sydney University early, with the students applying a lot of pressure and early shots by Rob Smithies were denied by the efforts of Abdul Alamedine who was having an exceptional game in goal for Hills, the latest in a super season of saves by the custodian.

After absorbing all of the early pressure, the Hills team realised that they could match it with Sydney Uni and proceeded to attack with rapid raids on the Sydney goal towards the end of the first half, but this tactic did not bring any goals, largely due to the efforts of Matt Craw who saved a number of on-target shots.

The second half produced a few more exciting moments, firstly the menacing Rob Smithies forcing Abdul to save again and then the same prolific marksman drawing Abdul out of his goal, chipping the ball over him towards the net only to find defender Jason Mesiti waiting on the goal-line, to clear the ball to safety. Smithies also hit the post.

After making a couple of substitutions Hills picked up again and re-commenced their attacking approach, with two significant chances going unrewarded. First, a Rick Moscato volley took a deflection and went out for a corner, and then, right on full time, a ball played across the face of goal by Shane Coombes eluded Mario Galatola's outstretched leg.

It was, in the final summing up, an even game, a draw being a well deserved result for Hills and another unfortunate lost point for the students, who have dropped out of the top four for the first time now, albeit on goal difference.

Over at Blick Oval Belmore went down 2-0 to Hurstville ZSC who are pressing hard from third spot, but, it must be admitted, are unlikely to trouble the leaders.

Robert Babaic scored both goals in the first half, the first a cool finish after a good team build up in the 5th minute and the second a clever lob after winning the ball in the centre of the park and setting off on a productive solo run in the 40th minute.

At Cook Park Mount Pritchard suffered another setback in going down 1-2 to University of NSW.

The Mounties are not travelling as well now as they were in the first round when they won this fixture away from home, quite easily, 3-1.

In the 6th minute a run by John Cosentino saw the ball played into the path of Joe Irofino, but the Marconi youngster was blocked by the solid defensive work of both Robbie Juric and David Nejedly from the 'Wales'.

In the 15th minute Ian Stoddart and Craig Morton exchanged passes with Lam Quach chiming in and from Stoddart, eventually, came the shot that went just wide of the post.

In the 18th minute, after a 'Wales' corner, Ian Stoddart made a sharp burst upfield to find John Cosentino who laid on a pass for Quach whose shot was saved well by keeper Nick Apoifis.

Shots in the 25th and 30th minutes by the Mounties were both saved by the keeper, the second time pushed out to the marauding Stoddart whose shot had to be hacked away by the busy Nejedly, off the line.

After 31 minutes and following a period of good counter attacking play by the Uni boys, the visitors won a free kick which Paul Wheatley took, forcing the Mounties' Matt Darwen to push the ball out, where, after another diving save, Wheatley was able to put the Uni team one up.

In the 33rd minute a corner from Ian Stoddart reached Craig Morton and was laid on for Lam Quach only to have the industrious Nejedly denying the Mounties another solid opportunity.

Some good defensive work by University of NSW and more missed opportunities by the Mounties saw Uni going to the break a goal to the good.

The second half began with the Mounties in all-out attack, and in the 47th minute a free kick taken by Franco Cosentino found Glen Lowe whose lofted shot was well taken by keeper Apoifis.

The Uni boys had another chance in the 57th minute, after a clearance from Anthony Vicaretti led to Paul Wheatley having a shot which went just wide.

Further chances fell to Quach, from a cross by Clinton Green and later to Green himself, but the students held firm and kept the Mounties scoreless at that point.

In the 79th minute, a good piece of ball work from Frank Serratore saw Clinton Green have a shot well saved again by the busy 'Wales' keeper.

In the 82nd minute a free kick from Nick Kodomichalos allowed Dax Bykerk to give it the softest of touches and thus put Uni 2-0 up, which almost put the game beyond the home team's reach.

It was, of course, much too late, but a 92nd minute corner saw a Frank Serratore volley hit the back of the net for a final scoreline of Mounties 1 Uni of NSW 2.

If there was a clear difference between the sides it was the ability of the University keeper to make some great saves at crucial moments in the game.

Before tackling Mount Druitt at Popondetta Park Hajduk Rangers were already celebrating the minor premiership with their Under 21 side, with four matches still to play.

Unbeaten and with only two points dropped all season, Hajduk's second grade team is a massive 18 points clear of the second-placed side. Their 2-1 win assured them of the title on this occasion.

Hajduk were mindful of having lost 0-1 at home to Mount Druitt eleven games earlier, in the first grade game, but there were no mistakes this time around.

The first time around Mount Druitt had defended doggedly and after scoring redoubled their efforts at the back. This time around they were under intense pressure from the outset and found themselves a goal down after 34 minutes.

A perfect shot from 20 yards out by J J Ellul gave the visitors the lead and within a minute they almost made it two. Chris Rasmuss made a strong run on the right and from his cross Damien Brown put the ball just wide.

Brown also had only the keeper to beat in the 39th but scooped the ball wide. The visiting fans only had to wait another minute, however, when Stephen Scotti's long range effort was deflected by a defender into the Mount Druitt net.

Mount Druitt were more adventurous after the break and almost had the ball in the net when Hajduk keeper Darren Cross slipped in trying to take a high ball and Trent Holmes was forced to clear off the line.

The third goal for Hajduk arrived in the 57th when Scotti's shot bounced back off the crossbar and ace poacher Brown headed in the rebound.

It might have been four had substitute Stephen Pirie's shot not been very well saved by the home side's keeper in the 71st.

It was another excellent display by the leaders who are in good touch right at the moment.

The team they have to beat this weekend, Fraser Park, are also running into form at the right time and beat Greystanes comfortably, the 3-1 win could have been far greater but for the brilliance of David Apps in the visitors' goal.

Matthew Zec was again to the fore, troubling the defence and eventually being brought down by the keeper in the 15th minute and putting away the resultant penalty.

A long ball out of defence by the Stanes a minute later saw the ball arrive at the feet of Gary Comerford who did exceptionally well to shake off three defenders and rifle the ball past Angelo Rodic.

Fraser took a while to regain the lead but were well on top and in much better touch than the previous week.

An inspirational run by Ennio Morson who got past three defenders and laid on a pass for John Palapanis in the 65th restored the home side's advantage.

Sasha Talevski, back in the starting line up only when Steve Lawrence cried off sick, redeemed himself for some lack-lustre performances of late with a tireless effort that was rewarded with a solo goal of distinction in the 75th minute. In winning 3-1 Fraser are now ready to tackle their rivals who lost the first time and will be sure to make life much harder the second time around.

Arncliffe Scots enjoyed another solid home win, seeing off the challenge from bottom dogs Sydney District 3-0. Bill Pilovski scored his first for the season in the 37th and Luis Klimovski made it 2-0 in the 68th. To wrap it up Chris Chrysanthos added a third in the last three minutes to leave the side from the south level with Sydney Uni on 30 points and in the top four for the first time this season.

ROUND NINETEEN PREVIEW

This is the weekend of the Sunday 10 am starts, with five of the six matches scheduled for that day.

There is just the one Saturday game which is at Camdenville Oval where Sydney District meets Sydney University.

Here is another chance for the home side to climb away from the bottom, but Jim Gallacher and his lads won't be too keen on that idea and should win with something to spare, though they will need their shooting boots on this time after leaving them at home last weekend when held scoreless by Hills United.

Sunday's big one is the clash between Hajduk Wanderers and Fraser Park at Hajduk Stadium and a few early birds will want to catch this one. It will be an epic for sure and one that could well decide the promotion issue. If Hajduk wins it could well spell the end for Fraser in their quest for a remarkable climb from relative obscurity to the threshold of the First Division.

If Fraser wins then the race is wide open again and even a draw would keep everyone on their toes.

We expect home advantage to be all-important here, but nothing is certain in soccer and it should be ninety plus minutes of pulsating action.

Hurstville ZSC will be snapping at the heels of this pair and keen to move 3 point closer to one of them when they tussle with Mount Pritchard at Hurstville Oval and while it could be tight, we would expect the locals to prevail.

Uni of NSW will be bent on at least taking a point from Arncliffe Scots at David Philips as the teams at the foot of the ladder are looking to move away from the danger zone and every point counts. This is one the students might just win, with an ounce of luck.

Greystanes are an enigmatic side, but home advantage is often very valuable for them and the visit of Belmore should provide them with 3 useful points to maintain a mid table position.

Hills United have been beset with problems almost from day one and it is not getting any easier for coach Fred Mesiti.

His opponents on Sunday morning are Mount Druitt and if it is any comfort they have been most vulnerable against the lower placed sides, so maybe

Hills can pick up a point or three here.

INSIDE INDOOR

While the Winter months reflect a quieter period for Indoor Soccer, there is still lots happening around the centres.

Outdoor Training

More and more clubs are using Indoor Soccer as part of their training schedule - a a lot of junior teams especially use Indoor Soccer to improve their ball skills.

Wet Weather

Most Indoor Soccer centres have court time available that can be used for training, either ball skills or game situations. Why not organise one or two training days a month and get indoors away from the cold weather?

Indoor Soccer Helps Outdoor Skills

No matter at what standard or age you play soccer, playing Indoor Soccer can be of great help.

If you come from South America you won't need convincing. Mostprofessional players in South America were brought up playing IndoorSoccer in some shape or form.

Contrary to belief, severe injuries are very rare - there were only 24 insurance claims with the Indoor Soccer (Five A Side) Association of NSW during the 1997-98 Season.

Off Season Training

What a number of outdoor Clubs are now doing with their junior teams, is splitting up the squads of 12 to 16 players from the winter competition and entering 2 teams in an Indoor Soccer competition over the off season. This keeps them interested, does not take up too much time (only * hour per team per week) and again you will be surprised at how much their ball skills will have improved before the next season.

Elite Training

The Coerver Coaching Scheme operating out of the NSW Soccer Federation use Indoor Soccer as part of their Elite training schedule and entered 2 junior teams in the Indoor Soccer competition at Glenwood.

The Australian Indoor Soccer (Five A Side) Association has been conducting representative trials for Australian teams to tour overseas later this year.

In order for Indoor Soccer to continue to grow and realise its full potential, the development of its junior players at Club level and above is a priority. The AISA has long-term goals and the forming of the Coaching Academy and appointment of its staff is just one of the steps put into place to achieve these goals.

ISA Indoor Soccer is now played in over 20 different centres throughout NSW under the control of the Indoor Soccer (Five-A-Side) Association of NSW Inc.

This Association is the only Indoor Soccer Association affiliated with Soccer NSW Limited.

The main season runs from September thru December, though a lot of centres continue playing during the Winter months.

Age groups start at 8 year olds in some centres and play right through to 16's, Youths, All Age, State League, Super League, Masters (Over 35's) and a National League. There are women's teams in most of these divisions.

Enter a team! Or enter individually. Once you have played you will come back for more!

Combined Youth League Tables

As the season gets into its interesting stages leading into the finals series, Super Soccer will take a weekly look at how the combined tables are sitting after each round.

Super Youth League

The Blacktown City Demons have two teams at the top of their respective tables, and it is therefore not surprising that they lead the combined table as well. They picked up ten points out of a possible 12 on the weekend against Marconi Fairfield, and sit well clear with 216 points.

In second, some 35 points behind are the Gladesville Hornsby Association, who picked up nine from their three games against the Central Coast, and just a point behind the Association side is Sydney Olympic, who also picked up nine points from the weekend.

Newcastle is fourth and picked up seven points from a tough away fixture at the Parramatta Eagles, while Wollongong slipped back after collecting just four points from their home fixtures with the Macarthur Rams.

Marconi Fairfield is sixth, but only picked up a point against the Demons, while Southern Districts in seventh picked up eight points against Sydney United, who are next on 138 points.

Just thirteen points separate the bottom four teams, with the Central Coast and Southern Branch on 63 points, and behind them is Manly Warringah Dolphins on 57 and Eastern Suburbs on 50.

Division One Youth League

AC United has a eleven point lead at the top of the combined Division One Youth League table, after picking up five points at Ryde City.

Its the Gunners who are in second, and they were unable to close the gap after picking up the same amount of points.

The Illawara Lions in third picked up nine points to move within two points of Ryde, and Bonnyrigg are a point behind now after picking up seven points against the Bankstown Association.

The Bankstown Association are also close in fifth, despite only picking up the four points against the White Eagles, and they are followed by the Blacktown Association, who got three points courtesy of their G15 team winning over the Lions.

Canterbury Marrickville are well-adrift at the bottom of the table on 26 points, although their game with St George was washed out on the weekend.

The Fairfield Bulls are second to bottom after picking up four points over the Stanmore Hawks, and third to bottom are the Canterbury Association, who picked up a superb twelve points against the Rockdale City Suns.

Division Two Youth League

Hajduk Wanderers have had their lead at the top of the combined table chopped to just one point after picking up just three points at the Ku-ring-gai Association.

The Nepean Association in second were not in an equally charitable mood, picking up all twelve points over Moorebank Sports.

Mt Pritchard in third are just another six points further behind, but they could only pick up four points against Parramatta City, and Mt Druitt are in fourth after also picking up twelve points.

Those top four teams are separated by just nine points.

Moorebank Sports are at the bottom after being blitzed by the Panthers, and second to bottom is CSI Schofields, who also went without a point.

Third to bottom is Hawkesbury City on 61 points, who moved above CSI after getting two wins and six points against Macquarie Sports.

Round 23 review

G13's

Blacktown just keeping pulling away at the top of the G13 table, and after 23 rounds they now have an incredible 20 point lead at the top. A goal average of plus 101 is a fair indication of their dominance as well, and their latest result was a 5-1 victory over Marconi Fairfield.

Wollongong are in second and leading the chase to finish in the runners-up spot, but their cause wasn't helped by a 2-2 draw at home to Macarthur.

Sydney Olympic is in third and closed the gap with a 4-0 win at the Eastern Suburbs, and Newcastle dropped from that position and into fourth after a 1-1 draw with the Parramatta Eagles.

Despite that excellent result the Eagles dropped a place, as the Gladesville Hornsby Association moved above them with a 2-0 win at the Central Coast.

The Leichhardt Tigers can go up a few places if they win their two games in hand, as the game between them and the Southern Branch was washed out.

The days other game saw the Sutherland Sharks defeat the Manly Warringah Dolphins 2-0 at Bates Drive.

G14's

Sydney Olympic stretched their lead from three points to five after winning 2-1 at Eastern Suburbs. Sydney United who were in second were held to a 2-2 draw against the Southern Districts, so the Gladesville Hornsby Association moved into second with a 5-0 win over the Central Coast.

Blacktown remains fourth after a tight 3-2 win over Marconi Fairfield, and the Southern Districts stay fifth after their draw with Sydney United. Wollongong is sixth but missed the chance to go above the Southern Districts after losing 1-0 at home to the Macarthur Rams.

Likewise Newcastle in seventh lost 3-1 at Melita Stadium to the Parramatta Eagles, but Sutherland moved into eighth after their 1-0 win over the Manly Warringah Dolphins.

The Leichhardt Tigers' came with bottom placed Southern Branch was washed out, the Tigers knowing that a win would have seen them move up into tenth.

G15's

Round 23 saw just one change to the G15 table, and that was near the bottom as Eastern Suburbs went above Manly after defeating Sydney Olympic 2-1.

Blacktown's lead at the top was cut to three points as they were held to a 1-1 draw with third-placed Marconi Fairfield, and the Gladesville Hornsby Association made them pay by winning 2-1 at the Central Coast.

In fourth the Southern Districts side won 1-0 at Sydney United, who stay fifth, while Newcastle in sixth came away with all three points from Melita Stadium after a 2-0 win over the Parramatta Eagles.

Sutherland in seventh have been consistent and they won 2-1 over the Dolphins, while Wollongong are next despite their 2-0 loss at home to the Macarthur Rams.

The Leichhardt Tigers G15 match DID go ahead, and they defeated the Southern Branch 3-0 at Lambert Park.

G16's

Sydney Olympic kept up that three point buffer over the Leichhardt Tigers on Saturday after coming away from Eastern Suburbs with a 1-0 win.

The Tigers did even better, winning 5-0 at home to the Southern Branch, and they also have two matches in hand over the current leaders.

Newcastle in third won 1-0 at Parramatta, and to continue a good day for the top teams the Wollongong Wolves defeated the Macarthur Rams to remain fourth.

Blacktown stays fifth after a 4-0 win over Marconi Fairfield, and Sutherland made it four wins out of four for the day over Manly, winning 4-3.

The days other game saw the southern Districts remain a place behind the Sharks, as they won 2-1 away at Sydney United.

Division One Youth League

Round 20 review

G13's

The top four stayed the same after Round 20 matches, with the Illawara Lions virtually assured of coming top as they maintained their unbeaten record with a 2-1 win over the Blacktown Association.

The Lions have dropped only two points all season, conceded only 6 goals and have a goal difference of plus 69. It would take a major form slump now to see them toppled!

The Bankstown Association are in second, but dropped thirteen points behind the Lions after drawing a 4-4 thriller against Bonnyrigg. AC United is third but they too were unable to collect all three points, drawing 1-1 at Ryde.

The Blacktown Association stay fourth despite their loss to Illawara, and Bonnyrigg moved into fifth as their one point took them above St George, whose game against Canterbury Marrickville was washed out.

Hills United stay in seventh despite going down 3-0 at home to Penrith, and they are followed in eighth by Rockdale, who also lost, 3-2 at the Canterbury Association.

Stanmore would have fancied their changes going to Fairfield who only had one win going into the game, but it was the Bulls who took all three points, winning 3-0.

G14's

Ryde City did themselves a great favour on Sunday by beating AC United, who remain third. The Gunners though are eight points clear at the top, and have a game in hand over the second placed Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

Ryde picked up a 2-0 victory over AC, while Bonnyrigg edged out the Bankstown Association 3-2 at the Serbian Centre.

Like the G13's Penrith jumped above St George into fourth with a 1-0 win over Hills United, the Saints seeing their game with Canterbury Marrickville being washed out.

The Canterbury Association remains in sixth after their 1-0 win over the Rockdale City Suns, and Illawara moved above Hills United and into seventh after a 3-2 win over the Blacktown Association.

Despite seeing their G13's win the Bulls of Fairfield were unable to repeat that act in the G14's, Stanmore coming away from Nineveh Field with all three points after a 1-0 win.

G15's

Its still a four point lead for AC United after Round 20 action, as they came away with a 1-0 win from Ryde, who dropped from third to fourth as a result of their loss.

Bonnyrigg in second had a 2-0 win over the Bankstown Association, and a point for Hills United against Penrith in a 0-0 draw was enough for them to go into third on goal difference.

The Blacktown Association moved into fifth with a 3-0 win over the Illawara Lions, as they leap-frogged both the Lions and the

The Canterbury Association moved clear off the bottom two when they beat Rockdale 2-0 at Punchbowl Oval, while there was a 2-2 draw with the Fairfield Bulls and Stanmore Hawks.

The game between St George and Canterbury Marrickville was washed out.

G16's

The top teams remained in the same spot as the Bankstown Association defeated the Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2-1 to go six points clear. In second Ryde City were held to a 2-2 draw at home to AC United, while in third place the Blacktown Association went down 4-0 to the Illawara Lions.

That win leaves the Lions just two points behind the team they beat, but Stanmore are level on points with them after a 2-0 win at Fairfield.

Penrith is sixth and picked up a 2-1 win at Hills United, and although AC are in seventh they have games in hand on all the other clubs.

Bonnyrigg are in eighth with Rockdale ninth, and in tenth the Canterbury Association picked up a 1-0 win over the Suns, to move within one point.

The game between the bottom two St George and Canterbury Marrickville was washed out.

Round 17 review

G13's

Despite a full program of games there were no changes to the G13 table after Saturday's Round 17 action.

The Nepean Association remains in top spot with a two point lead over the Ku-ring-gai Association, the Nepean boys winning 2-0 over Moorebank Sports.

The Ku-ring-gai Association had an even closer match before getting up 2-1 over Hajduk Wanderers, the same scoreline that the third placed Macquarie Sports defeated Hawkesbury City by.

Mt Druitt Town in fourth also won 2-1, over CSI Schofields, and Mt Pritchard in fifth defeated Parramatta City 2-0.

In the six games played 2-0 was the biggest margin of victory, and that was emphasised with the Camden Tigers and the Granville Association drawing 0-0 at Ron Dine Reserve.

G14's

There were also few changes in the G14 table, with the top six staying the same after Saturday's games.

Incredibly, the top two teams Macquarie Sports and Mt Pritchard, who both went into the round on 31 points, stayed on that number after both lost.

Hawkesbury City hammered leaders Macquarie Sports 5-1 away from home, while Mt Pritchard went down 2-1 at Parramatta City.

CSI Schofields then in third had a great chance to close the gap between them and the top two to just one point - and promptly lost 1-0 at home to Mt Druitt.

The Nepean Association in fourth needed no second invitation though, defeating Moorebank Sports 7-0, nor did the Camden Tigers in fifth, who won 4-0 over the Granville Association.

The Ku-ring-gai Association in sixth won 2-1 over Hajduk Wanderers, as the clubs in fourth to sixth closed the gap on the top three.

G15's

It's a different story in the G15 competition, where leaders Hajduk Wanderers continue to march on. Their latest success came in a 4-3 win over the Ku-ring-gai Association, maintaining their seven point lead at the top of the table.

Parramatta City continue to give chase, and they edged home 2-1 against fourth-placed Mt Pritchard, while the Ku-ring-gai Association remains third despite their loss to the leaders.

Macquarie Sports moved into fifth after a 2-0 win over Hawkesbury City, and Mt Druitt also moved up a place after a 2-0 away win at CSI Schofields.

Moorebank Sports were the team to drop down two places after a 2-1 defeat by the Nepean Association, while the Camden Tigers defeated the Granville Association for their fourth win of the season.

G16's

Like the G13's table there were no changes after Saturday's games, so the Nepean Association keep up their three-point lead at the top after a 6-0 win over Moorebank Sports.

Their lead is from the Camden Tigers, who defeated the Granville Association 3-0, and Mt Druitt in third won 2-0 at CSI Schofields.

There is a five-point gap between third and fourth, where Hajduk Wanderers remains despite a 3-2 loss at the Ku-ring-gai Association.

Mt Pritchard are in fifth and drew 2-2 with the six-placed Parramatta City, and Hawkesbury City picked up its fourth win of the season when it beat Macquarie Sports 3-0.

Round 16 review

G11's

With six games to go in the regular season Canterbury Marrickville have a three-point lead over Sydney United, as the two teams met at Henson Park on Sunday. A win by United would have seen them still behind the Berries but only on goal difference, but as it was a 2-2 scoreline proved of far more use to the home side.

With Marconi Fairfield not playing, St George went into third after winning 4-0 at home to the Macarthur Rams. The Saints are seven points behind Canterbury Marrickville, but has two games in hand.

Leichhardt remains fifth after edging out the Parramatta Eagles 3-2 at Lambert Park, while Eastern Suburbs ensured that Parramatta City remains without a win after a 3-0 win at Eric Primrose Reserve.

G12's

Sydney United has a four-point gap over the teams in second to fourth, but those clubs - Marconi Fairfield, Parramatta Eagles and St George - all have the same number of points (29)

United picked up maximum points when accounting for Canterbury Marrickville 5-0, and with Marconi Fairfield not playing the Eagles were another team to win 5-0, this time away at the Leichhardt tigers.

St George would have gone second with a game in hand over Sydney United but could only draw 1-1 against the Macarthur Rams, while Eastern Suburbs accounted for Parramatta City 2-1 to pick up their fifth win of the season.

Round 19 review

G11's

With leaders Macquarie Sports sitting out the weekend with a bye, all eyes were on Penrith Park where Penrith and Illawara, sitting second and third respectively, met. The Lions were a point behind the Panthers going into the game, but it was the visitors who came away with both three points from their hosts and second spot after a 2-1 win.

With Hills United losing 3-1 away at Hawkesbury City, AC United moved above them into fourth spot after a 6-0 win at home to Mt Pritchard.

Hawkesbury City sit in sixth, and one place behind them are the Stanmore Hawks, who defeated Mt Druitt 5-0 at Arlington Oval. In eighth are Hajduk Wanderers, despite a 2-1 home defeat by Moorebank Sports, and next are CSI Schofields who defeated the tenth placed Hurstville City Minotaurs 5-0.

G12's

Stanmore moved a massive nine points clear of the G12 table, and with just seven games remaining in the regular season are looking good to finish first. Their latest success came in a 4-0 win over Mt Druitt, and even better for them was that Penrith in second went down 1-0 to the Illawara Lions.

Macquarie Sports stay in third after sitting the round out with a bye, and Hills United, who were in fourth, slipped down two places after a 2-1 defeat at Hawkesbury City.

Into fourth go CSI Schofields, 1-0 winners over Hurstville City, and AC United move into fifth after a 2-0 win over Mt Pritchard.

The days other game saw Hajduk Wanderers and Moorebank Sports draw 0-0 at Hajduk Stadium.
